

Grace Cook Primary
School and Nursery
Newsletter
Issue 3 February 2022

Dear Grace Cook community,

I hope this newsletter finds you all well. We are on the verge of March, and Spring is only just round the corner with so much hope and excitement for the future. Hopefully you will have seen our uniform that will be available to order during April on the PMG website. Please continue to follow us on social media, as you will see the school building making great progress despite the tricky weather we've had recently.

Richard Dediccoat - Headteacher

We are incredibly excited to show you some of our Grace Cook uniform. From 1st April, uniform can be purchased from PMG Schoolwear (prices to follow) <https://www.facebook.com/PMGSCHOOLWEAR> Sweatshirts are jade green, with a navy polo shirt.

Updates

Since the last newsletter we have begun to recruit staff for our school. We currently have adverts out for an Early Years Specialist and Business Administrator Apprentice. Please follow the link for more details or look on the school website under the Recruitment tab. Early Years Specialist Teacher.

The school build continues to grow and you will have seen the update photos if you follow us on social media. Continued thanks to Helen Leeks who lives opposite the school keeping track on this for us. We will also be welcoming her son to the school in September as he begins his Grace Cook learning journey.

The Build – how far are we away from this?
